1. INTRODUCTION

This procedure is based upon the NALC model Disciplinary Procedure.

This disciplinary procedure is designed to help and encourage employees to always achieve and maintain acceptable standards of conduct and job performance, including the need to: -

- Fulfil the duties specified in their contract of employment.
 - Be honest and act beyond suspicion of dishonesty.
 - Maintain high standards of integrity and conduct to protect the Council's image and reputation with the public.
1. This document indicates the disciplinary procedure that will normally be followed in the event of misconduct. The following list provides examples of conduct that will normally be regarded as misconduct leading to disciplinary proceedings. The list is not exhaustive. These are examples only:
- a. Unsatisfactory time keeping.
 - b. Absenteeism, including any absence from work during a working day without prior authorisation or instruction.
 - c. Failure to comply with rules and regulations applicable to job requirements.
 - d. Failure by an employee to perform the duties and responsibilities of his or her post to the standard expected by the Council.
 - e. Insubordination.
 - f. Any other conduct that from time to time is defined by the Council as amounting to misconduct.

For first instances of minor misconduct the Chair of the Employment Committee may speak to the employee informally before implementing a formal disciplinary procedure. However, there is no obligation for the Chair of the Employment Committee to do this.

2. SCOPE

The procedure applies to all employees of Birchanger Parish Council.

3. VERBAL WARNINGS

Verbal Warnings are issued for most first instances of general misconduct, depending on the seriousness of the offence. If the employee is given a Verbal Warning they will be warned of the likely consequences of any further disciplinary offences or a failure to improve his or her conduct to the satisfaction of the Council. A note confirming the Verbal Warning will be placed on the employees personnel file and a copy will be provided to the employee. A Verbal Warning will normally remain in force for 6 months.

The Verbal Warning stage of the procedure may be omitted if the offence is of a sufficiently serious nature.

4. FIRST WRITTEN WARNING

In the case of a serious offence or repetition of an earlier minor offence, the employee will normally be given a First Written Warning. A First Written Warning will be issued by the Employment Committee of the Council and will set out:

- the nature of the offence and the improvement required (if appropriate) and over what period;
- the likely consequences of any further offence or failure by the employee to improve his/her conduct to an acceptable standard;
- that further offences will result in more serious disciplinary action; and
- the employee's right of appeal.

A first Written Warning will normally remain in force for 6 months.

The First Written Warning stage of the procedure may be omitted if the offence is of a sufficiently serious nature.

5. FINAL WRITTEN WARNING

If further misconduct occurs within the period specified in a First Written Warning, or if the misconduct is sufficiently serious, the employee will be given a Final Written Warning. A Final Written Warning will be issued by the Chair of the Council and will set out:

- the nature of the offence and the improvement required (if appropriate) and over what period;
- the likely consequences of any further offence or a failure by the employee to improve his/her conduct to an acceptable standard;
- that further offences will result in more serious disciplinary action up to and including dismissal; and
- the employees right of appeal.

Final Written Warnings may also be issued in circumstances where the misconduct does not amount to gross misconduct but is sufficiently serious enough to warrant only one written warning.

A Final Written Warning will normally remain in force for 12 months.

6. STANDARD COUNCIL DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

- 6.1. In the case of further misconduct within the period specified in any Final Written Warning or if the misconduct is sufficiently serious and the Council deems it to be appropriate to contemplate the dismissal, demotion, or suspension (without pay) of the employee the following formal disciplinary procedure will be followed.
- 6.2. The Council will investigate the alleged misconduct and will establish the facts surrounding the complaint as necessary, including consideration of the statements of any available witnesses.
- 6.3. The Council will set out in writing the alleged conduct or other circumstances which lead the Council to contemplate dismissing the employee or taking disciplinary action against the employee and the basis for the allegation and will send the employee a copy of the statement inviting the employee to attend a disciplinary meeting to discuss the matter. The employee will be provided with a reasonable opportunity to consider his or her response to the information provided in the statement before attending the meeting. The employee must take all reasonable steps to attend the meeting.
- 6.4. Disciplinary meetings will normally be convened within 5 working days of the Council sending the employee the written statement referred to in 6.3 above. The employee may be accompanied to any disciplinary meeting by a fellow employee or by a representative of a trade union (referred to after as "the employees' companion"). The Council will be represented by the Chair of the Council or the Chair of the Employment Committee.
- 6.5. If the time or date proposed for the meeting is inconvenient (either for the employee or for the employees' companion, should they wish to be accompanied to the meeting pursuant to 6.4 above) the employee may ask to postpone the meeting by up to 5 working days.
- 6.6. The meeting may be adjourned to allow matters raised during the meeting to be investigated, or to afford the Council time to consider their decision.
- 6.7. After the meeting the Council will inform the employee of their decision and any applicable sanction within 5 working days and the meeting may be reconvened for this purpose. The decision will be confirmed to the employee in writing.
- 6.8. If the employee wishes to appeal against the decision, they must notify the Council in writing within 5 days of receiving written notice of the decision.
- 6.9. If the employee notifies the Council that they wish to appeal, the employee will be invited to attend a disciplinary appeal meeting before the Council's Employment Committee. The employee must take all reasonable steps to attend that disciplinary appeal meeting. The employee has the right to be accompanied to a disciplinary appeal meeting by a companion pursuant to sub para 6.4.
- 6.10. A disciplinary appeal meeting will normally be convened within 10 working days of the Council receiving notification that the employee wishes to appeal pursuant to 6.8 above. If the meeting date is inconvenient for the employee or the employee's companion, they may ask to postpone the meeting by up to 5 working days.

- Any new evidence that the employee wishes to put forward will be considered, as will any new evidence from the Council. The original disciplinary penalty will be reviewed.
- The disciplinary appeal sanction originally imposed cannot be increased upon appeal.
- The disciplinary appeal meeting will not necessarily take place before any disciplinary sanction imposed by the Council takes effect. If the employee's appeal is against dismissal and the appeal is successful, the employee will be reinstated and continuity of employment will be preserved.
- The meeting may be adjourned to allow matters raised during the meeting to be investigated, or to afford the Council's Employment Committee time to consider its decision.

6.11. After the disciplinary appeal meeting the Council will inform the employee of its final decision within 5 working days and the meeting may be reconvened for this purpose. The decision will be confirmed to the employee in writing.

The date on which the employment terminated will be confirmed to the employee and the employee may be reminded of any continuing obligations they may have following the termination of employment. This statement will also explain the employees right to appeal against the Council's decision.

 - The meeting may be adjourned to allow matters raised during the meeting to be investigated, or to afford the Council's Employment Committee time to consider its decision.
- 7.9. After the disciplinary appeal meeting the employee will be informed of the Council's final decision within 5 working days and the meeting may be reconvened for this purpose. The Council's decision will be confirmed to the employee in writing.
